WHAT IS TITLE IX?

Title IX is the Federal Civil Rights Law that states,

“No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance...”

Universities must comply with Title IX to ensure that all members of the campus community can participate equitably in educational activity and programming.
CSU Policy Statement

The CSU prohibits Sex Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, Dating and Domestic Violence and Stalking.

Executive Order 1096: Policy and Procedures; Discrimination, Harassment, Retaliation, Sexual Misconduct, Dating and Domestic Violence and Stalking against Employees and Third Parties

Executive Order 1097: Systemwide Policy Prohibiting Discrimination, Harassment & Retaliation, Sexual Misconduct, Dating & Domestic Violence & Stalking against Students
CSU Policy Statement

Sexual Misconduct, Dating and Domestic Violence, and Stalking violate University policy and may also violate criminal law.

Executive Order 1096: Policy and Procedures; Discrimination, Harassment, Retaliation, Sexual Misconduct, Dating and Domestic Violence and Stalking against Employees and Third Parties

Executive Order 1097: Systemwide Policy Prohibiting Discrimination, Harassment & Retaliation, Sexual Misconduct, Dating & Domestic Violence & Stalking against Students
The University's primary concern is the safety of members of the Campus community; that the use of alcohol or drugs never makes the victim at fault for Sexual Misconduct; that Students or Employees who experience or witness Sexual Misconduct should not be deterred from reporting incidents out of a concern that they might be disciplined for related violations of drug, alcohol, or other University policies; and that Students or Employees who experience or witness Sexual Misconduct shall not be subject to discipline for related violations of conduct policies at or near the time of the misconduct unless the violation is egregious (including actions that place the health or safety of any other person at risk or involves plagiarism, cheating, or academic dishonesty).
Sexual Misconduct

All sexual activity between members of the CSU community must be based on Affirmative Consent. Engaging in any sexual activity without first obtaining Affirmative Consent to the specific activity constitutes Sexual Misconduct and is a violation of this policy, whether or not the conduct violates any civil or criminal law.

Sexual activity includes but is not limited to kissing, touching intimate body parts, fondling, intercourse, penetration of any body part, and oral sex.
Affirmative Consent means an informed, affirmative, conscious, voluntary, and mutual agreement to engage in sexual activity. It is the responsibility of each person involved in the sexual activity to ensure that Affirmative Consent has been obtained from the other participant(s) to engage in the sexual activity. Lack of protest or resistance does not mean consent nor does silence mean consent. Affirmative Consent can be withdrawn or revoked. Affirmative Consent cannot be given by a person who is incapacitated.
Dating Violence is abuse committed by a person who is or has been in a social or dating relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. This may include someone the victim just met; i.e., at a party, introduced through a friend, or on a social networking website. For purposes of this definition, "abuse" means intentionally or recklessly causing or attempting to cause bodily injury or placing another person in reasonable apprehension of imminent serious bodily injury to self, or another. Abuse does not include non-physical, emotional distress or injury.
Domestic Violence is abuse committed against someone who is a current or former spouse; current or former cohabitant; someone with whom the Respondent has a child; someone with whom the Respondent has or had a dating or engagement relationship, or a person similarly situated under California domestic or family violence law. Cohabitant means two unrelated persons living together for a substantial period of time, resulting in some permanency of relationship. It does not include roommates who do not have a romantic, intimate or sexual relationship. For purposes of this definition, "abuse" means intentionally or recklessly causing or attempting to cause bodily injury or placing another person in reasonable apprehension of imminent serious bodily injury to self, or another. Abuse does not include non-physical, emotional distress or injury.
Stalking means engaging in a repeated Course of Conduct directed at a specific person that would cause Reasonable Person to fear for the safety of self or others' safety or to suffer Substantial Emotional Distress.
Course of Conduct

Course of Conduct means two or more acts, including but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through Third Parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person's property.
Reasonable Person

Reasonable Person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with the same Protected Status(es) as the Complainant.
Substantial Emotional Distress

Substantial Emotional Distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.
Student/Employee Relationships

The CSU prohibits Employees from entering into a consensual relationship with any Student or Employee over whom they exercise direct or otherwise significant academic, administrative, supervisory, evaluative, counseling or extracurricular authority.
Retaliation is Prohibited

The CSU prohibits retaliation against a person who: reports Sex Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, Dating or Domestic Violence, or Stalking; assists someone with a report of such conduct; or participates in any manner in any related investigation or resolution. Retaliation includes threats, intimidation, reprisals and/or adverse actions related to employment or education.

HOW CAN THE UNIVERSITY SUPPORT PREGNANT STUDENTS AND EMPLOYEES?
TITLE IX REQUIRES SCHOOLS TO

Allow pregnant students to participate in classes and extracurricular activities even though they are pregnant and not require them to submit a doctor’s note unless it requires a doctor’s note from all students who have a physical or emotional condition requiring treatment by a doctor.
A school also must not require a doctor’s note from a pregnant student after they have been hospitalized for childbirth unless it requires a doctor’s note from all students who have been hospitalized for other conditions.
Provide pregnant students and employees with reasonable adjustments, like a larger desk, elevator access, or allowing them to make frequent trips to the restroom, when necessary because of their pregnancy.

Excuse absences due to pregnancy or childbirth for as long as their doctor says it is necessary.
TITLE IX REQUIRES SCHOOLS TO

Allow pregnant students to return to the same academic and extracurricular status as before their medical leave began, which should include giving them the opportunity to make up any work missed while they were out.

Provide pregnant students with the same special services it provides to students with temporary medical conditions. This includes homebound instruction/at-home tutoring/independent study.
Ensure that instructors understand the Title IX requirements related to excused absences/medical leave. A teacher may not refuse to allow a pregnant student to submit work after a deadline missed because of pregnancy or childbirth. If the instructor’s grading is based in part on class participation or attendance and a student missed class because of pregnancy or childbirth, they should be allowed to make up the participation or attendance credits they didn’t have the chance to earn.
Protect students from harassment based on sex, including harassment because of pregnancy or related conditions. Comments that could constitute prohibited harassment include making sexual comments or jokes about their pregnancy, calling them sexually charged names, spreading rumors about their sexual activity, and making sexual propositions or gestures, if the comments are sufficiently serious that it interferes with their ability to benefit from or participate in your school’s program.
TITLE IX REQUIRES SCHOOLS TO

Provide students private rooms to pump milk or breastfeed.
