

To maintain a learning and working environment free from sexual harassment, the campuses are encouraged to educate the campus community, students, and employees regarding sexual harassment. The Office of the Chancellor will make available training for persons designated to receive complaints of sexual harassment.

Glenn S. Dumke, Chancellor

Date: June 1, 1981

ARCHIVE